

Nsha

Music Producer, DJ

ABOUT

Nsha (Roman Shazse) , a musical voyager who set foot in Paris a decade ago, carries with him a rich sonic heritage passed down by his musically inclined parents. His artistry is a fusion of jazz and funk undertones interwoven with contemporary elements, paying homage to the multigenerational tapestry of electronic influences. Beyond the decks, Roman has evolved into a versatile sound engineer, lending his expertise to various projects. In the realm of creation, he meticulously crafts his signature sound within the confines of his recording studio, a beautiful cavern where synthesizers and rhythm boxes coalesce in harmonious synergy. In 2019, Roman founded his independent label "Mimesis" Within the dramatic confines of black and white universe. It's the space where emerging talents take center stage, and deep, dancefloor-driven music consistently pushes the boundaries of originality.

"Signed to Azzur in 2023 and then XYZ in 2024, tracks like Two Faced, Underwater, Simplify are now played by Black Coffee, Keinemusik, Sona, FKA Mash, WhoMadeWho, Laolu, and other headliners in the electronic scene. His music resonates with diverse audiences worldwide, solidifying Nsha's position as a rising talent on the international stage."
